FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OPERATION ICE PALACE PINEVILLE WOMAN SENTENCED FOR METH CONSPIRACY

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Pineville, Mo., woman was sentenced in federal court today for her involvement in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. This sentencing is the result of Operation Ice Palace, a long-term investigation into the illegal sale of large quantities of over-the-counter cold medications to methamphetamine manufacturers in southwest Missouri. Operation Ice Palace resulted in a series of indictments by a federal grand jury against 53 defendants.

Frances Duckett, 39, of Pineville, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this afternoon to two years and six months in federal prison without parole.

On June 18, 2004, Duckett and co-defendants Sherry Woodard, 45, of Washburn, Mo., and Lonnie Weston, 59, of McDonald County, Mo., were convicted by a federal jury. They were each found guilty of participating in a methamphetamine conspiracy that resulted in the manufacture and distribution of between 1.5 and 5 kilograms of methamphetamine. In addition, Woodard, owner of Sims General Store during the time of the conspiracy, was found guilty of distributing pseudoephedrine. Lonnie Weston was also found guilty of possession with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of methamphetamine. Using ingredients obtained from Woodard's store, Graves said, Lonnie Weston manufactured methamphetamine and sold it to others to distribute.

On Sept. 14, 2004, Lonnie Weston was sentenced to 30 years in federal prison without parole. On Jan. 20, 2005, Woodard was sentenced to 10 years in federal prison without parole.

Duckett is one of nine defendants charged in an Oct. 16, 2003, federal indictment. Among those co-defendants:

* Billy Richard Brassfield, 56, of Pineville, Mo., was sentenced on Sept. 13, 2004, to seven years and three months in federal prison without parole. On May 20, 2004, Brassfield pleaded guilty to participating in the methamphetamine conspiracy. During the conspiracy, Brassfield also owned and operated Sims General Store. From as early as 1999 to October 2000, Graves said, Brassfield diverted pseudoephedrine that he obtained for the store to Lonnie Weston for the purpose of manufacturing methamphetamine. Brassfield also allowed methamphetamine to be manufactured on his property.

* Kevin Davis, 44, of Exeter, Mo., was sentenced on Sept. 13, 2004, to 10 years and 11 months in federal prison without parole. On May 19, 2004, Davis pleaded guilty to conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. By pleading guilty, Davis admitted that he was present during 10 to 15 methamphetamine cooks and would act as a lookout during the manufacturing process. Davis was originally arrested on March 21, 2001, driving a stolen vehicle in McDonald County. Upon searching the vehicle, law enforcement officers discovered components of a methamphetamine laboratory, including lithium batteries, coffee filters, empty bottles of pseudoephedrine and anhydrous ammonia.

* Michele Kreitel, 33, of Seligman, Mo., was sentenced on Sept. 13, 2004, to three years in federal prison without parole. On May 19, 2004, Kreitel pleaded guilty to conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. Kreitel admitted that she purchased methamphetamine and assisted in the manufacture of methamphetamine between January 1999 and March 14, 2002.

* Jody Weston, 23, of Washburn, Mo., was sentenced on Sept. 13, 2004, to seven years and three months in federal prison without parole. On May 20, 2004, Jody Weston pleaded guilty to participating in the conspiracy, which resulted in the manufacture and distribution of between 1.5 and 5 kilograms of methamphetamine between January 1999 and March 14, 2002, in McDonald County. Jody Weston admitted that he assisted in cooking methamphetamine and acted, at times, as a lookout during the manufacturing process. He also admitted that he distributed methamphetamine to others.

* Craig Guinn, 42, of Westville, Okla., was sentenced on Sept. 13, 2004, to five years in federal prison without parole. On May 19, 2004, Guinn pleaded guilty to conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. By pleading guilty, Guinn admitted that he assisted in gathering precursors for the manufacture of methamphetamine. Specifically, he admitted that he participated in the theft of a 1,000-gallon anhydrous tank in Granby, Mo.

* Rebecca Singleton, 37, of Ginger Blue, Mo., pleaded guilty on June 18, 2004, to participating in the conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine and awaits sentencing.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Randall D. Eggert. It was investigated by the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, COMET (the Combined Ozarks Multi-jurisdictional Enforcement Team), the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the Southwest Missouri Drug Task Force, and the McDonald County Sheriff's Department.
